Research Focus on Black Education

A recent spate of articles report that no matter their background, Black folks are faced with seemingly insurmountable odds in pursuit of equitable opportunities leading to economic freedom. Powerful partnerships are needed to close an array of opportunity gaps that created these unjust outcomes.

You are invited to celebrate the beginning of the American Education Research Association (AERA) conference with the San Francisco Human Rights Commission at LinkedIn's New York City office in the Empire State Building. Join us for an engaging conversation on Black social outcomes and policies with a leading economist, Darrick Hamilton, Professor of Economics and Urban Policy at The New School and Associate Director of Duke University's Center on Social Equity. The discussion will be followed by a panel of leaders in education, government, counseling, and the law sharing best practices for building equitable and lasting partnerships designed to address these pressing issues and yield mutual benefits. The event will conclude with an opportunity to get to know the speakers and guests over free drinks and hors d'oeuvres.

SAN FRANCISCO PARTNERS & PROJECTS

THE SAN FRANCISCO HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

advocates for equity and non-discrimination as a municipal enforcement agency of the City and County of San Francisco. For nearly 50 years, SFHRC has grown in response to San Francisco's mandate to address the causes of and problems resulting from prejudice, intolerance, and discrimination.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

is an inclusive community that finds common ground and moves to higher ground. Students and faculty work together to create an experiential academic environment with a commitment to justice.

THE COMMUNITY SAFETY INITIATIVE PROGRAM

offers paid summer internships for high school and transition-aged youth who are primarily from low-income public housing in San Francisco and have experienced persistent and disproportionate contact with violence. CSI offers these student leaders cradle to career pathways and strategies focused on community safety.

BLACK TO THE FUTURE

is a call to action for African American community empowerment in San Francisco, a community-driven collaborative to strengthen City services in the areas of family support and advocacy; education; health and wellness; workforce development; and violence prevention.

MY BROTHER AND SISTER'S KEEPER INITIATIVE

The City and County of San Francisco, San Francisco Unified School District, and The San Francisco Foundation joined as co-sponsors of President Obama's My Brother's Keeper Community Challenge, forming the San Francisco Alliance for My Brother & Sister's Keeper as our community's call to action.
